

The Intelligencer.

CHAS. F. CAMPBELL, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

NATURDAY, FEB. 24, 1877.

THE LATE JOHN BISHOP.—We have already in the INTELLIGENCER, Mr. Bishop's philosophy and scientific turn of mind.

Mr. Hays offered the following amendment to the bill: "That this act shall not apply to the collection of any assessment made by the Board of Education of the school district of the city of Wheeling, during the term of office of the collector of the office of Collector of the city of Wheeling."

Mr. Hays withdrew his motion and the bill was indefinitely postponed. Mr. Faulkner moved to lay the motion on the table.

On motion of Mr. Ferguson the House took a recess until 3 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The House met at 3 P. M. A message from the Senate announced the passage of House Bills Nos. 117 and 154, and Senate Bill No. 104.

Mr. Ferguson, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted the report of that committee.

On motion of Mr. Faulkner, the House then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Imboden in the chair, for the consideration of House Bill No. 170, the general school law.

On motion of Mr. Ferguson, at 5 o'clock the committee rose and the Chairman reported progress to the House.

Leave was granted the committee to sit again.

On motion of Mr. Ferguson, the House took a recess until 7 o'clock.

NIGHT SESSION. The House met at 7 o'clock, and on motion went into Committee of the Whole for the further consideration of the general school bill.

At 9:30 P. M. the committee rose, reported its progress and asked leave to sit again, which was granted.

The House then adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

SENATE. Senate met at 9 o'clock. Mr. Turner, from the Committee on Education, reported back House Bill No. 98, appropriating public lands to the Jefferson County Agricultural College, without recommending any amendments.

Also, House Bill No. 193, amending the school law of the State, recommend it to pass as amended by the committee.

Mr. Dennis, from the Judiciary Committee, reported Senate Bill No. 105, authorizing any judge of this State to administer oaths of office.

Mr. Newton, from the Committee on Roads, reported back House Bill No. 17, to open and keep in repair the county roads, recommended it to pass.

The following bills came up on their second reading: House Joint Resolution No. 8, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State. Rejected.

Mr. Adams, on leave, introduced Senate Bill No. 103, to correct a clerical error in the charter of the New River Railroad Mining and Manufacturing Company. Reference dispensed with.

Mr. Caldwell: Senate Bill No. 105, in relation to the capital stock of railroads. Reference dispensed with.

House Bill No. 85, in relation to the boundary line between Virginia and West Virginia. Passed.

House Bill No. 76, authorizing the city of Parkersburg to purchase the grounds of the Wood county Agricultural and Mechanical Association for park purposes. Lost; yeas 5, nays 12.

House Bill No. 63, a bill to amend and re-enact section 29 of an act passed Feb. 24, 1875, entitled an act to establish a court of limited jurisdiction in the city of Wheeling; read a second time and ordered to a third reading.

House Bill No. 73, fixing the time for holding the County Courts of Wood, Wayne and Cabell; read a second time and laid on the table on motion of Mr. Newton.

House Bill No. 117, extending the time of certain officers, elected by the town of Harrison; in which, to qualify, was read a second time and ordered to a third reading.
